Dine Out Lauderdale: 11 Restaurants In Greater Fort Lauderdale Our Editors Will Be Heading To

by Lyssa Goldberg (/author/Lyssa Goldberg) Aug 12, 2016 02:15 PM

Nearly 40 restaurants are participating in Dine Out Lauderdale this year, (<https://www.fortlauderdale.com/upfront/noteworthy/nearly-40-restaurants-broward-county-are-participating-dine-out-lauderdale-year>) but how do you find time to try them all?

There are only so many free nights for those three-course meals that leave you feeling full until the next morning, so we've helped narrow down the options.

Our editors each picked the three eateries they want to visit during Dine Out 2016—from the restaurants they've tried and loved, to others they've been dying to discover.

Now we're not telling you need to eat at these spots, but we sure will be.

Steak 954 (<https://www.sunny.org/listings/steak-954-at-the-w-hotel/7192/>)

Ocean view, flawless service and to-die-for steaks, all coupled with the opportunity for a great Instagram photo in front of the jellyfish tank. (If there isn't a photo, did you even participate in Dine Out Lauderdale?)

My picks: Big eye tuna tacos, 6 oz. petite filet mignon (with fingerling potatoes and mushroom bordelaise), chocolate toffee bread puddings

Wild Sea Oyster Bar & Grille

Las Olas Locals Specials Offer Broward Residents Discounts On Dining,

Street-side dining along Las Olas Boulevard and a teeming seafood selection. Careful—your dish may be too beautiful to eat.

My picks: Here's to hoping the award-winning Chocolate Sphere is a dessert option. It arrives intact, but once the waiter pours a chocolate drizzle it opens to a berries and whipped-crème center.
